DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9782

This is an antique buckle back chair. An English, rosewood drawing room or side seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Beautifully appointed chair, ideal for the drawing room or reception hall
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Superb stocks to the frame show fine grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Benefits from a recent professional upholstery in tasteful silk cotton
- Distinctive bowed crest rail with gently chamfered form
- Buckle back splat presents a carved double tulip motif
- Traditionally webbed seat cushion with charming patterned fabric
- Standing upon a pair of turned front legs with tulip carving and splayed rear legs

This is a delightful antique buckle back chair, of fine quality and presentable in the reception hall or within the drawing room. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
