

Pair Of First Edition Novels by Minette Walters, Signed, English, Hard Bound

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9726

This is a pair of First Edition novels by Minette Walters. An English language, author signed hard-bound crime fiction, dating to the early 1990s.

An award-winning author, Minette Walters (September 1949) has written over 15 titles since her first novel 'The Ice House' in 1992. Moving between crime novels and shorter novellas, Walters has recently pursued stories set against the backdrop of historic events such as the Black Death. A hallmark of her crime writing has been a sense of grounded reality and not being tied to a single set of characters has allowed each title to take place in an eclectic selection of locations.

- Represents Walters' first and second crime novels
- Both titles presented in good, intact condition with some edge colouring
- Quality hard binding with tooled leather spines and marbled papers
- Each title page hand signed by Minette Walters in ink
- Illustrated throughout with maps, excerpts and other ephemera

This is an appealing pair of First Edition novels, with the distinction of being signed by the award winning author. A treat for the keen reader. Delivered ready to enjoy.
