

3 Antique Badminton Library Books, English, Boating, Driving, Cricket, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9731
This is a set of 3 antique Badminton Library Books. An English language, hard bound reference title on sporting topics, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890. Dedicated to the Prince of Wales (later Edward VII) the Badminton Library Books series of the late Victorian period was a series of titles covering sporting pursuits and pastimes. Covering popular sports and hobbies of late Victorian Britain, with titles such as Tennis, Boating and Cricket.

- Presented in good, intact antique order with minimal coloration
- Two titles in standard trade binding with the distinctive illustrated cover
- 'Driving' bound in orange and blue with gilt coat of arms to the cover
- Delightful illustrations accentuate each title
- Guest writers such as cricketer W.G. Grace and Eton Captain R. Harvey Mason add insight

This is a charming set of 3 antique Badminton Library Books, offering a fascinating range of titles replete with detail and fine illustrations. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Cricket (1888) - 429 pages

Boating (1888) - 340 pages

Driving (1890) - 426 pages

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #18.9731, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Cricket Width: 14cm (5.5")
- Cricket Depth: 4cm (1.5")
- Cricket Height: 19.5cm (7.75")
- Boating Width: 14.5cm (5.75")
- Boating Depth: 3.5cm (1.5")
- Boating Height: 19.5cm (7.75")
- Driving Width: 14.5cm (5.75")
- Driving Depth: 4cm (1.5")
- Driving Height: 19.5cm (7.75")

LIST PRICE

£295.00

