

Set of 6 Antique Framed Botanist's Specimens, English, Dried Plants, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9614

This is a set of 6 antique framed botanist's specimens. An English, mounted dried grass and flower collection, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Wonderfully preserved mid 19th century plant life, with appealing presentation
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order behind clear glass
- Skilfully dried in period and mounted within tasteful, later frames
- Six different specimens present, each annotated with its Latin name
- Also annotated with the date and location it was gathered in
- Samples noted as being gathered in Kew Gardens and Jamaica
- Dressed to the rear with mounting cups for ease of hanging

This is a fascinating set of 6 antique framed botanist's specimens, displayed neatly within tasteful later frames. A pleasingly natural decorative set, delivered ready to display.
