

Antique Gentleman's Davenport, English, Walnut, Writing Desk Victorian, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9774

This is an antique gentleman's Davenport. An English, walnut and bird's eye maple writing cabinet in Aesthetic Period taste, dating to the Victorian era, circa 1880.

- A fine example, with exquisite craftsmanship and beautifully appointed
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order throughout
- Superb walnut stocks show fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Comprehensive suite of compartments set within the delightful frame
- The angled top hosts a lidded compartment ahead of the skiver
- Tanned to a rich amber hue, the tooled and embossed skiver in good condition
- Opening to reveal a striking bird's eye maple interior, with a pair of recessed drawers
- Both upper sections dressed with brass lock escutcheons – in working order, key present

- Appealing field panelling decorates the lower fascia and side panels
- Carved foliate friezes adorn each panel, with shaped apron brackets adding a flourish
- Right hand side hosts a quartet of delightful drawers behind a cabinet door – key present
