

Wide Antique Dressing Stool, English, Walnut Bedroom Seat, Early Victorian, 1840

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9776

This is a wide antique dressing stool. An English, walnut bedroom seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Comfortable and of a generously wide proportion
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Delightful walnut frame shows fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Well upholstered with a traditionally stuffed cushion
- Functional and robust cotton upholstery with fleur-de-lys pattern
- Some marks to fabric present commensurate with careful use
- Could benefit from re-covering to personal fabric taste
- Frame hosts relief carved foliate motif with a quartet of cabriole legs on pad feet

This is a generously sized antique dressing stool with a wide proportion and a finely crafted frame. Ready to use as is, but destined to shine with a quality reupholstering. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
