

Antique Travelling Vanity Case, English, Leather, Silver, Dressing Table Box

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9806

This is an antique travelling vanity case. An English, leather and silver dressing table box with fitted interior, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Appealing vanity set with quality silver accessories
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Deep green, lightly aged leather in the manner of Asprey
- Silk cotton lining presents nicely with a distinctive patterned finish
- Dressed with a pair of sliding brass clasps with a stout leather handle
- Monogram to lid in gilt tooling with the initials M.G.H.
- Fitted interior offers a suite of 12 accessories, with brushes and bottles
- Birmingham hallmarks on silver dated between 1906 'G' and 1912 'N'
- Trio of tactile dressing table brushes with fine bristles
- Six silver topped bottles sit neatly within shaped hoops
- Replete with a fascinating leather cased ink well and lighter

Search London Fine for #18.9806, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 43cm (17")

Max Depth: 35cm (13.75")

Max Height: 18cm (7")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

