DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9894

This is a delicate antique book, Compendium of Farriery. An English language, Georgian guide to equestrian care, published in London, 1796.

Full title: Taplin Improved; or a Compendium of Farriery, Wherein is Fully Explained The Nature and Structure of that Useful Creature a Horse; with the Diseases and Accidents he is Liable to; and the Methods of Cure.

- Loosely bound, the delicate condition presents some pages intact, but mostly loose
- Condition commensurate with centuries of use, with markings and aged throughout
- Published in English across approximately 140 pages
- Printed in London by the Minerva Press, a notable Georgian publisher
- Graced with charming engraved plates with illustrations of horses

This is a fascinating antique book, the Compendium of Farriery. Well thumbed and delicate, but eminently appealing due to its age and equestrian subject. Delivered ready to enjoy.
