

Book of Antique Poems by Robert Burns, Scottish Dialect English, Georgian, 1813

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9897

This is an antique copy of Poems, Chiefly in the Scottish Dialect by Robert Burns. A Scots English language hard bound poetry book, dating to the Georgian period, published 1813.

Celebrated world-wide and considered Scotland's national poet, Robert Burns (1759 - 1796) - affectionately known as Rabbie - was a prolific poet and lyricist in the 18th century. Credited as a main player in the Romantic movement of arts, his works in a light Scots dialect afford him an audience outside of Scotland's borders. A cultural icon, remembered with his own day each year on his birthday (25th January) and sculptures across the world, Robert Burns is a titan of the poetic form. His song Auld Lang Syne became a New Year's tradition and his body of works are studied in academia to this day.

- Presented in a fair to good antique condition with time-worn cover, but intact pages
- Hard bound with marble paper cover with leathered spine and gold titling
- Published in the Scottish dialect of English across 235 pages
- Originally printed in Edinburgh in 1794, this expanded edition with imprint to rear for 1813
- Frontispiece portrait engraving of Burns with loose, p ...

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 12cm (4.75")

Max Depth: 2cm (.75")

Max Height: 19.5cm (7.75")

Search London Fine for #18.9897, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.