

Antique Ecclesiastical Side Table, Scottish Oak, Hall, Gothic Revival, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9883

This is an antique ecclesiastical side table. An Scottish, oak reception hall table with Gothic revival taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- An appealing example of Puginesque Gothic taste
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Select oak stocks present fine grain interest and medullary rays
- Rich caramel hues beam beneath a light wax polish finish
- Wide top surface over a generous kneeheight of 63cm (24.75")
- Arcading to the table sides and fascia enhance the ecclesiastical appearance
- Fascinating fretwork patera accentuates the shaped apron with quarterfoil motif
- Raised upon a quartet of tapering block feet, with wide foot rest uniting either side

This is a striking antique ecclesiastical side table, with fabulous colour and endearing craftsmanship. Ideal for use in the reception hall, or to the side of your room. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
