

Set Of 4 Antique Dining Chairs, English Elm, Beech, Kitchen, Reception Hall Seat

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9905

This is a set of four antique dining chairs. An English, elm and beech spindle back kitchen seat, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Wonderfully versatile chairs with a traditional country house appearance
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Quality elm and beech stocks show fine grain interest
- Light biscuit hues enchant with an appealing natural finish
- Bowed top rail supported by a pair of uprights with turned spindles inside
- Striking shaped splat with pierced fretwork completes the supportive back rest
- Charming saddle seat anatomically shaped at a comfortable height of 44.5cm (17.5")
- Presence of the George VI crown audit mark adorns the rear of the seat squab
- Standing upon a quartet of turned and splayed legs with peg feet
- Each leg united with a tapered H-stretcher rail
- Well suited to use in a waiting room or home kitchen environment
