

Antique Lithography Map, West Africa, English, Framed, Cartography, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9996

This is an antique lithography map of Western Africa. An English, framed atlas engraving of cartographic interest by John Rapkin, dating to the early Victorian period and later, circa 1850.

John Rapkin was considered as one of the best map makers of the mid 19th century, working in conjunction with John Tallis to engrave maps for the Illustrated Atlas and Modern History of the World (1845-51).

- Quality lithography of West Africa and its constituent countries - ideal for display
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Fascinating cartography, presented tastefully within quality, later frames
- Major locations, coloured topography and tributaries annotate the map
- Superb illustrations showcase coastal ports and local coinage
- Dressed to the rear with hanging cord for ease of mounting

This is a quality antique lithography map of Western Africa, with fine cartographic interest. Delivered ready to display.
