

Antique Lithography Map, Durham, English, Framed, Cartography, Early Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9968

This is an antique lithography map of Durham. An English, framed engraving of cartographic interest, dating to the early 18th century and later, circa 1720.

- Superb lithography of Durham and its surrounding political wards
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Fascinating cartography, appealingly set within a quality, later frame
- Dressed to the rear with hanging cord for ease of mounting
- Colourful shield to the upper corner - Dunelmensis or 'being of, or from Durham'
- Includes the mapmaker's name and the dealer's names of Abel Smale & John Churchill

- Coloured borders partition the wards of Chester, Derlington and Stockton
- Topography and places of interest in colour add fine illustrative detail

This is a quality antique lithography map of Durham, with fine cartographic interest. Delivered ready to display.
