

Vintage Book, The Swiss Family Robinson, English, Fiction, Johann Wyss, C.1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24086

This is a vintage copy of The Swiss Family Robinson. An English language, bound fiction book by Johann David Wyss, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

Written by the Swiss author Johann David Wyss (1743 - 1818), The Swiss Family Robinson was inspired by Robinson Crusoe (by Daniel Defoe) from a century earlier. A tale intended to teach the writer's children morality and family values, the titular family is shipwrecked en route to Australia and survive upon a remote island until a rescue attempt.

- Presented in good original condition, pages intact
- Bound in textured cloth, with time worn titling to the spine
- Superb colour frontispiece opposite the title page
- Published by Ward Lock & Co in English across 320 pages
- Printed as part of the publisher's Lily series, with catalogue of titles to the rear

This is a vintage copy of The Swiss Family Robinson, with a lightly time worn appearance a testament to the enjoyment it has provided. Delivered ready to enjoy.
