

Pair Of Tall Antique Stem Vases, Austrian, Ceramic, Flower Sleeve, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24105

This is a pair of tall antique stem vases. An Austrian, ceramic flower sleeve, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Beautifully decorated vases, with superb colour and figural scenes
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Quality ceramic with a light cream ground and a fine, glazed appearance
- Rich colours accentuate the vase, the vibrant pink bands catching the eye
- Tall, slender handles decorated with gilt finish sit above the circular rim
- Further gilt touches with chased foliate patterns throughout
- Each vase presents a quality traditional scene with female figures and a jovial cherub
- Set amongst colourful flowers in a stately garden, presenting an idyllic scene
- The base displaying the Royal Vienna or Wien maker's mark
- 'Bindenschild' mark taken from the centre of the Royal Habsburg coat of arms
- One vase bears an aged French dealer label from the town of St. Etienne
