DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24082

This is an ornate antique school bell. A Continental, brass wall mounted chime, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Endearingly fascinating bell with superb detail throughout
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Warm golden hues accentuate the brass mount and bell
- Broad dome bell set gracefully upon a pierced fretwork arm
- The 14cm diameter bell strikingly adorned with relief cast cherub figures
- Spurred off from the hinge, the pull handle activates the striker
- Serpentine shaped backplate replete with cherub mask relief
- Pleasingly strident tone to the bell ideal for raising attention

This is a strikingly ornate antique school bell, with a captivatingly decorative finish. Delivered ready to mount.
