

Antique Carpentry Book, Architecture Reference, Peter Nicholson, Victorian, 1846

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24304

This is an antique carpentry book. An English language, bound reference guide by Peter Nicholson, dating to the Victorian period, published 1846.

Full Title: Practical Carpentry, Joinery and Cabinet-Making; Being an new and complete System of Lines for the use of workmen, founded on accurate geometrical and mechanical principles, with their application in Carpentry - to roofs - domes, centring, etc; In joinery - to stairs, hand-rails, soffits, niches etc; In Cabinet-making, to furniture, both plain and ornamental. Fully and clearly explained.

- Peter Nicholson (1765 - 1844) was a Scottish architect, carpenter, mathematician and engineer.
- Presented in aged condition - cover loose, aged pages intact with some markings present
- Bound in marble paper on board, the leathered spine with gold titling
- Superb frontispiece with a portrait of the author and a scene of centring on Waterloo Bridge, London
- Published in English across 176 pages, with engraved illustrations to rear on 90 plates

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 22.5cm (8.75")
- Max Depth: 3.5cm (1.5")
- Max Height: 28.5cm (11.25")

LIST PRICE

£695.00

This is a charming antique guide to carpentry and joinery, offering a fascinating 19th century architectural reference by the architect Peter Nicholson. In delicate condition.

Search London Fine for #24304 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details
 London Fine Ltd
 The Antique Village
 The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
 Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.