

Antique Ship's Purser's Desk, English, Writing Table, Beidermeier, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24196

This is an antique ship's purser's desk. An English, burr walnut Davenport writing table in the Beidermeier taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Exquisite craftsmanship with superb colour and figuring
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Burr walnut stocks present striking grain interest
- Rich caramel hues dazzle beneath a wax polish finish
- Low shaped back rest adorns the top, with a useful butler's grasp
- Drawer to centre dressed with a pair of circular brass pulls and lock – key absent
- Inset leather skiver residing within the drawer, in a tasteful dark red
- Skiver lifts and adjusts for angle upon a rack of ratchet teeth, with storage below
- Extending upon lopers, the drawer conceals a small pen drawer to one side
- Turned pillar supports to the front, opposite a panelled rear fascia
- Demi-lune plinth of deep proportion, with a generous kneehole

Search London Fine for #24196 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 59cm (23.25")
 Max Depth: 42cm (16.5")
 Max Height: 84.5cm (33.25")
 Kneehole Width: 44.5cm (17.5")
 Kneehole Depth: 23cm (9")
 Kneehole Height: 60.5cm (23.75")
 Skiver Width: 30.5cm (12")
 Skiver Depth: 24cm (9.5")

LIST PRICE

£2,650.00

