

Antique Plank Top Mill Table, English, Pine, Country House, Dining, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24236

This is an antique plank top mill table. An English, pine country house 6 seat dining table, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Delightful example with a lightly weathered appearance
- Displays a desirable aged patina, commensurate with age and use
- Pine stocks present caramel and deep chestnut hues throughout
- Rare two plank top, with a 4cm (1.5") thickness and gently rolled edges
- Seat 6 comfortably with a knee hole height of 57.5cm (22.75")
- Four broad block shoulders enclose the deep apron fascia
- Accentuated with a quartet of turned and gently tapered legs
- Standing upon a set of four cylindrical feet

This is an appealing antique plank top mill table, with a pleasingly patinated finish, commensurate with age. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
