

Antique Collegiate Map, Cambridge, English, Framed Cartography, Victorian, 1838

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24479

This is an antique collegiate map of Cambridge. An English, framed coloured lithograph of cartographic interest by Thomas Moule, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1838.

Thomas Moule (1784 - 1851) was an influential map maker of the Victorian era, with a further interest in heraldry and an active antiquarian. His maps offer an abundance of detail and visual interest, accentuated with coat of arms and engraved local interest in the form of landscapes or architectural study.
