

Antique Combination Games Table, Middle Eastern, Chess, Backgammon, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9105

This is an antique combination games table. A Middle Eastern, inlaid olivewood and exotic wood metamorphic chess and backgammon table, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

<li class="p1">Strikingly ornate, with an exceptional metamorphic form to host a multiple of favourite games

<li class="p1">Displays a desirable aged patina, slight loss to the top commensurate with age

<li class="p1">Olivewood stocks profusely accentuated with bone and wooden inlay

<li class="p1">Rich caramel hues with contrasting saffron and amber colouring

<li class="p1">Fascinating upper, with rotating motion and dual folding action

<li class="p1">Upon rotation, access is granted to a generous card and counter storage box

<li class="p1">Initial fold reveals a crushed velvet card table in a delightful emerald green

<li class="p1">Half of the card baize folds upon itself, revealing the exquisite chess table

<li class="p1">One final folding action opens out fully to show the backgammon board
