

Antique Field Telescope, English, Terrestrial, Starboy, Broadhurst Clarkson & Co

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9953

This is an antique field telescope. An English, brass terrestrial and astronomical 'Starboy' tripod mounted refractor by Broadhurst, Clarkson & Co, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife stalking, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- Impressive Starboy model, replete with a superb tripod and accessories in a quality case
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Striking brass brightwork presented in eye-catching, original order
- Body unmarked as such, but almost certainly by the renowned Broadhurst, Clarkson and Co. of London
- Being a terrestrial model, the image is displayed 'right way up' through the eyepiece
- Large 3.25" primary objective lens affords a bright image through the scope
- Single draw tube extends smoothly, focused by knurled wheel moving an internal rack and pinion
- Spotting scope parallel to the barrel with crosshair reticule

• Supplied with a parallel viewing tube, accessory eyepieces and period information
