

Gigantic Antique Shop's Display Chest, English, Vellum, Oak, Trunk, Coffee Table

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24558

This is a gigantic antique shop's display chest. An English, vellum and oak bound decorative trunk or coffee table, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Unusual example with very large proportion - ideal for use as a distinctive coffee table

- Displays a desirable aged patina with a time worn appearance

- Finished in vellum, known for its resilient properties

- Bound with oak straps, showing rich caramel hues and fine grain interest

- Of such vast size, almost certainly crafted as a shop display piece

- Large lid held together with a pair of Chubb of London sliding clasps – key absent

- Pleasingly presentable original interior in good order, commensurate with age

- Dressed with leather strap handles to each end for ease of movement

This is a fascinatingly large antique shop's display chest, with a delightfully unusual proportion. Ideal for use within a club setting or as a coffee table in the larger lounge.
