

Antique Book, Bones and I, Whyte-Melville, English, Novel, Victorian, Circa 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24245

This is an antique book, Bones & I by George Whyte-Melville. An English language, bound novel, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

First published in 1868, Bones & I is a humorous novel written about a man - Jack Raggles - who gains possession of a human skeleton. Written by George Whyte-Melville (1821 - 1878), the book is a comedic and macabre blend of satire and class division.

<li class="p1">Nicely presented example of this unusual title

<li class="p1">Displays a desirable aged patina, lightly time-worn but intact

<li class="p1">Bound with cloth over board in navy blue with gold spine decor

<li class="p1">Printed across 287 pages by Ward, Lock & Co, London

<li class="p1">This 'new edition' was given as a Christmas gift in 1882

This is a fascinating antique copy of Bones & I, a comedic title sure to provide hours of entertainment. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #24245 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 12cm (4.75")

Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Max Height: 17.5cm (7")

LIST PRICE

£345.00

