

Antique Book, Massacre of Glencoe, G. Reynolds, English Novel, Victorian, C.1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24247

This is an antique book, Massacre of Glencoe by George W M Reynolds. An English language, bound novel, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860.

A prolific writer, George William MacArthur Reynolds (1814 - 1879) released over 40 novels and numerous shorter stories. Almost forgotten compared to contemporaries Dickens and Thackeray, in his lifetime he was said to be the most read author of the day.

- Pleasing example of this appealing illustrated edition
- Displays a desirable aged patina, lightly time-worn and intact
- Bound with cloth on board, with leather dressed spine and gold titling
- Superb illustrations throughout by Edward Corbould (1815 - 1905)
- Printed across 339+ pages by John Dicks on behalf of George Reynolds
- Originally serialised between 1852 and 1853, this compendium first published in 1860

This is a fascinating antique novel, the Massacre of Glencoe. Nicely illustrated and presented in appealing aged order. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #24247 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 17cm (6.75")

Max Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Max Height: 25cm (9.75")

LIST PRICE

£695.00

