

Vintage 4 Book Set, History Of British Furniture, English, Reference, Macquoid

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24617
 This is a vintage 4 volume book set - A History of British Furniture by Percy Macquoid. An English, bound antiques reference guide, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1925. Authored by Percy Macquoid (1852 - 1925), a British illustrator, magazine contributor and stage designer, his subdivision of furniture into the individual timbers has become a standard other titles follow. The four volumes are: The Age of Satinwood (259 pages); The Age of Oak (243); The Age of Walnut (247); and The Age of Mahogany (271 pages).

- <li class="p1">Comprehensive study of British furniture, published across four volumes between 1925 and 1928
- <li class="p1">Displaying a desirable aged patina, each intact with minor age commensurate with gentle use
- <li class="p1">Each dressed in light burgundy cloth on board, with gilt titling
- <li class="p1">Illustrated title pages, finished with red and black ink
- <li class="p1">The four volumes occupy over 1,000 pages with written captions throughout
- <li class="p1">Superb monochrome and colour illustrations present a visual history of furniture

DIMENSIONS

/strong>:
 Max Width: 29.5cm (11.5")
 Max Depth: 3cm (1.25")
 Max Height: 37.5cm (14.75")

LIST PRICE

£295.00

This is a fascinating 4 volume set of A History of British Furniture, with excellent illustrations. Search London Fine for #24617, or scan the QR code for more photos and details.

London Fine Ltd
 The Antique Village
 The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
 Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
 E. & O. E.