

Antique Harmsworth Atlas & Gazetteer, English, Cartography Reference, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24635

This is an antique Harmsworth Atlas & Gazetteer. An English, bound cartography reference book, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- <li class="p1">Large and impressive, with exceptional detail and beautifully presented
- <li class="p1">In good original order, intact and pleasingly clean throughout
- <li class="p1">Bound in green cloth over board, with gilt titling on the leather spine
- <li class="p1">Substantial weight in the hand at 5.56kg (12.25 lb)

- <li class="p1">Comprehensive, with over 200 double page maps in full colour
- <li class="p1">Includes maps of Atlantic Cables, railways and industries to add further detail
- <li class="p1">Illustrated sepia-coloured map keys display the upcoming numbered entries
- <li class="p1">Fascinating gazetteer to the final pages lists individual places and their map number

This is a superb antique Harmsworth Atlas & Gazetteer, graced with a striking level of detail and offering multiple themes from industry to transport. A treat for a collector or for those with an appetite for geography. Delivered ready to enjoy.

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #24635 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 29cm (11.5")
- Max Depth: 6.5cm (2.5")
- Max Height: 40.5cm (16")

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.