DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24544
This is an antique metamorphic console table. An English, mahogany fold-over 4 seat dining or bridge table, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835.

• Superb metamorphic table, serving as a side table and opening up to accommodate four
• Displays a desirable aged patina and in good, original order
• Select stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
• Rotating upon the frame through 90 degrees, the table folds open upon brass hinges

• In closed form, the traditional console table presents itself as ideal for the hall or study
• Folding over the top reveals a wonderful kitchen dining table for four guests
• Finally, set within a drawing room, it becomes a fine card table, with generous space for playing a hand
• Raised upon a quartet of faceted baluster legs and riding smoothly upon castors

This is a fascinating antique metamorphic console table, with a host of uses created from the fold-over nature of the lightly aged top. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
