

Pair Of Antique Articulated Candlesticks, English, Brass, Candelabra, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24597

This is a pair of antique articulated candlesticks. An English, brass two branch candelabra, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Appealing table centrepieces, with the convenience of adjustment
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Brass presents a subtle golden tonality, with pleasingly deep colour
- Integral carry handle situated above the shaped branch arms
- Each branch mounted upon an adjustable riser, with a range of 22.5cm (8.75")
- Prominent candle nozzles host a diameter of 23mm (1")
- The branch folding in on itself for more convenient carriage through the home
- Supported upon a tiered circular base with a protective green baize beneath

This is a fine pair of antique articulated candlesticks, with a fascinating folding and rising mechanism. Delivered ready for the home.
