

Pair Of Antique Side Chairs, English, Walnut, Buckle Back Seat, Early Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24751

This is a pair of antique side chairs. An English, walnut buckle back seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Excellent colour and taste to this inviting pair of chairs
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Quality walnut frames present fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues to the frame and cushion in aesthetic harmony
- Striking buckle backs with a wide, gracefully arched crest rail
- Buckle back splat with twist motif to the shaped bracket
- Accentuated to the chamfered rail with lobed detail and leaf cappings
- Traditionally stuffed cushion at a comfortable height of 46cm (18")
- Quality brushed velvet upholstery in good, clean condition

Search London Fine for #24751 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 46.5cm (18.25")
- Max Depth: 50.5cm (20")
- Max Height: 86.5cm (34")
- Seat Width: 45cm (17.75")
- Seat Depth: 40.5cm (16")
- Seat Height: 46cm (18")

