DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24675

This is an antique three tier music stand. An English, rosewood whatnot with articulated lectern rest, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Delightful music stand, with fine Regency craftsmanship
- Presents a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Arranged across two display tiers with an adjustable rest to the top
- Set upon a ratchet rest, the top reclines in multiple angles
- Removable paper rest to the leading edge, securing sheet music when in use
- Crafted from brass, two articulated candle sconces offer a provision for illuminating the rest
- Upper display gallery ideal for setting down a violin or trumpet
- Supports accentuated with eye-catching tulip flowerhead relief carvings
