

Antique Side Table, Circular, Georgian, Oak, Occasional, Tripod, English

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1475

This is an antique side table dating to the reign of George II c.1750.

In generous stock, this table is raised upon a tripod of cabriole legs resting upon pad feet supporting a stout, ring turned barrel column.

The fixed plank top is well supported beneath further strengthened by quality butterfly joints offering a very robust and stable table.

The top displays good grain detail with a desirable patina in the honey hues of the deep waxed finish.

The oak throughout displays well with a rich, warm glow.

Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed polished and ready for the home.
